

PETE COBB MEMORIAL TOUR

(WAXAHACHIE GINGERBREAD TRAILS TOUR WEEKEND)

Sunday, June 4, 2006

We will again assemble at Barbec's Restaurant on Garland Road (2-3 blocks south of the Garland Road/Buckner Blvd. intersection - Casa Linda) at 8:00 am for those wishing to join us for breakfast.

After breakfast, we will meet in the Barbec's parking lot for a short drivers meeting. After the meeting we will exit Barbec's by turning right onto Garland Road and proceeding as outlined below.

After arrival, and parking on the Courthouse Square in Waxahachie (under the watchful eyes of the National Guard) those of you who drove or rode in an antique car parked on the Square will be given a Waxahachie Gingerbread Tour Ticket worth $15.00 each, compliments of the Ellis County Museum, Inc. In addition to admission to the Gingerbread Houses open this year for your inspection and the free shuttle service, you can opt for shopping in the several antique stores and or used furniture stores around the Square.

Lunch will be on your own and the town abounds with fine restaurants. We will leave to return to Dallas at 4:30 pm (or sooner if everyone is ready).

THE FOLLOWING IS THE PLANNED TOUR ROUTE:

Proceed, as before, to Casa Linda Shopping Center, at Garland Road and Buckner (Lp12), go 0.4 mile SW on Garland Road to Barbec's Restaurant (on Right or West Side of the street).

Those desiring to eat Breakfast (on your own) may join Andy & Juanita on the Patio
